

M. FREEMAN LEADS PISTOL CLUB FOR SECOND YEAR

To the illustrious fraternity of such pistol peers as Buffalo Bill Cody, Wild Bill Hickok, Annie Oakley, Wyatt Earp, Billy the Kid, Pat Garrett and Marion Freeman add again the name of Marion Freeman, local steel worker. For the second successive year he topped all members of the Torrance Revolver club in target-thumping. Freeman shot 20 strings for an average of 274.45 during 1937-38. In the year 1936-37 he fired 12 strings to hang up the best average of 271.40.

Officer Percy Bennett, second during 1936-37 also held second place for the year ending June 1, 1938. He averaged 273.36 as compared to an average of 268.25 for 73 strings of the preceding year.

Hugh Ekersley, another steel worker, exchanged places with Water Superintendent William H. Stanger this year. He fired 108 strings for 270.07 during the past 12 months while the former mayor averaged 268.36 for 149 strings. In 1936-37 Stanger averaged third place with 266.67 and Ekersley was fourth with 256.07.

Ollie Medicus, foreman in the local garage, fired the most strings during the past year—167 for a fifth place average of 266.52. He was 12th the preceding year.

Two women members of the club showed up well, according to the annual averages compiled by Sergeant Ernest Ashton. Mrs. Josephine Moore, local housewife, shot 19 strings for 220.08 to prove herself a better marksman than 18 other members—including Police Officers Dolton, Tolson, Schumacher, Evans and Perkins. Mrs. Bernice Jean Houdashelt captured the 47th place on the list of 52 with her seven strings and averages of 193.64. The complete report of the annual averages follows:

She's Unashamed

Miss Diana Paige, actress in the film "Unashamed," is shown above after offering to disrobe in a Los Angeles court and prove she felt no compunctions about having nude pictures of her displayed where the film was exhibited. The judge declined to view the evidence. Not so the photographers.

Small Crowd at Sports Show

A bang-up show that provided plenty of action to partially warm up the brave 350 who attended the Sports Nite entertainment last Friday night at the city hall park, was staged under the auspices of the Kiwanis and Key clubs. The show consisted of several exhibition ring events with Torrance, Gardena and Inglewood boys providing the action, some spectacular hand-balancing by Wayne Hoffman, star-halfback, and Loren Brown, acrobat gymnast from U.S.C., and exhibitions of Japanese fencing, judo and amateur wrestling by Roy H. Moore's students of the sport from Inglewood.

This latter part of the show was the outstanding hit. Moore is conducting a school in the Japanese sports and also teaching the art of amateur wrestling—which is amazingly different from the pro, grunting and growling exhibitions. Referee of the ring events was Gene Garner, local steelworker, who once kayoed Buddy Beer, while Coach Bernie Donahue, formerly of Torrance high, served as one of the judges.

The small crowd and disappointing ticket sale left the Kiwanis club wondering where it is going to raise the $100 it has pledged to pay for the track suits purchased for the Tartar team this year. The Key club was also speculating on how to find the money for its objective—raising a fund to care for athletes who may be injured in school events.

The Torrance Merchants played ball in a cloud of dust last Sunday against Frenchy's Cafe nine at Santa Fe Springs and lost 8 to 4. The game was played in a grain field. Palca pitched for the Merchants until the fifth inning when he was relieved by Willis after being touched for five hits. Willis granted three more safeties.

Nine errors cost the Merchants the game. The local team collected seven hits during the encounter. Next Sunday will go to Lincoln Heights for a game with a team from that district.

Two Bowling Leagues Running at Local Alleys

Altho there are only two leagues playing there now, the Torrance Bowling Academy on Carson street continues to attract a host of enthusiastic pin-poppers every night. The Women's league has been drawing capacity crowds every Thursday night and the Men's Handicap, run Tuesday nights, has a large group of followers.

Owner-Manager Ed Gaspar said this week that Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights are "open alleys" at the bowling center and players not attached to the two leagues may find much enjoyment on those evenings. The local alleys sponsored the appearance of six local men in the Mid-State Bowling championships at Fresno last week. Tommy McNeil and Star Chan-bellain came home with cash awards after capturing two of the 65 places in the singles matches. Ray Sleppy, Jess Quail, Ruben Tyner and Melvin Rich also participated in the matches which attracted hundreds of bowlers from all over the state.

The standings this week of the two leagues are:

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

20-30 Club	17	7

Great Fish Run Sunday Afternoon Said in Progress

Greatest run of fish experienced by anglers on the Olympic fishing barge in three years is reported by Capt. J. M. Anderson, skipper of the deep-sea barge anchored off Hermosa Beach. Largest one-day haul was 600 barracuda taken from the barge. Sculpin, rock cod and halibut are also being brought in.

The once-lowly mackerel now reported scarce in Southern California waters, returned to their old stamping grounds this week. Capt. Anderson says the mackerel are so hungry, that anglers must hide behind the mast while baiting their hooks.

Merchants Lose at S. F. Springs

The Torrance Merchants played ball in a cloud of dust last Sunday against Frenchy's Cafe nine at Santa Fe Springs and lost 8 to 4. The game was played in a grain field. Palca pitched for the Merchants until the fifth inning when he was relieved by Willis after being touched for five hits. Willis granted three more safeties.

THREE TARTARS AND SEVEN GAUCHOS IN TRACK FINALS

As a result of the preliminary trials last Saturday in the L. A. Coliseum, Jefferson high school's hopes of retaining its city track and field title were given a big boost as the Democrats qualified the most athletes for the finals which will be held in the same bowl this coming Saturday. The

Supply Team in Harbor League; Plays Tonight

A member of the Harbor football league, composed of 10 men teams and six girl squads, the National Supply nine will play its first game in the newly-formed circuit tonight at San Pedro's Sports field. The local team will appear in the second game scheduled with Fain's squad furnishing the opposition.

Three San Pedro squads have joined with six teams from Long Beach and the Supply men in forming the league for men while two San Pedro girl teams, two from Wilmington and two from Long Beach will make up the girl circuit.

Double headers are to be played five nights each week with Saturday and Sunday evenings held open for exhibition fights. The National Supply men will also play the second game against the Three Pigs, Friday night.

Game License Required To Shoot Cans in Idaho

BOISE, Ida. (U.P.)—Tin cans will receive the same protection from the state game department that wild life does. Game department officials, following calls from several persons which said young boys were endangering wild life, residents and tin cans with their small calibre rifles, issued this statement:

"Boys who shoot at tin cans without a game license are violating the law."

Report Good Catches at Long Beach

Barracuda, white sea bass, yellowtail and rock bass gave hundreds of visiting anglers good catches at Long Beach this week. Fourteen live-bait boats brought in 3637 barracuda, 150 white sea bass, 110 yellowtail, 418 rock bass and an assortment of other fish Tuesday.

Gargo fishermen celebrated the return of barracuda and white sea bass to the Horseshoe Kelp. Surf fishing gave good catches of corbina and spottin croaker.

Marine league sent 101 athletes to the preliminaries, of which 11 were Torrance Tartars. Thirteen Marine leaguers, of which three were local boys, qualified to compete in the Coliseum Saturday.

Billy Stewart, who set a new Marine league high jump record of 6 ft. 1 1/2 in., will be in the finals for that event in the Class A division. Bill Nagle, who won the 1320-yd run in the Marine finals in the new record time of 3 m. 30.9 s., placed second in a heat last Saturday and Stecher also qualified. That was the sum of the Tartars' efforts in the preliminary meet.

Dillon in Low Sticks
Jack Dillon of Narbonne, high-point man of the Marine league meet, met with misfortune in the 120-yd. high hurdles. Leading by a big margin at the midway mark, he stumbled on a hurdle and limped in last. He came back to win his race in the 150 low hurdles, cracking the time of 20.5 s. after tipping over a couple of barriers. In the Marine contest here May 28 Dillon was timed in 19.8 s. for the low sticks and set a new record of 14.6 s. in the highs.

Narbonne also qualified Oses in the 120 highs, Dadds in the mile and Yakota in the pole vault for Class A competition. In Class B events, Roberts tied for a second place as did Hart in another heat of the 70-yd. high hurdles. Peck, also of Narbonne, qualified in the Class C division by winning the 600-yd. run in 1 m. 27.6. He had won the Marine event here in 1 m. 26.5 s.

Other Marine schools qualified as follows: Thorburn of El Se-
